Statement of Risk

PLEASE READ THE FOLLOWING

Adventurous Activities involve some risks for the participants.

Young Bristol places safety as a top priority; Adventurous Activities involve some risks of the people taking part, and the Activities Team aim to keep these risks as low as possible.

The chances of serious injury are extremely low, but the chance of minor injuries (bruises, bumps and – less likely – minor fractures) are a possible result of taking part in Adventurous Activities.

To ensure the safety of its participants, Young Bristol will minimise the actual dangers by:

- Carrying out a thorough assessment of all risks before commencing the activity.
- Only using experienced instructors with the appropriate qualifications for the activity.
- Giving clear safety instructions to all participants.
- Ensuring equipment and clothing is well-maintained and suitable for the activity and environment.
- Ensuring activities are within the capabilities of the participants.
- Asking participants to supply any medical conditions or information.
- Ensuring good hygiene standards are kept.
- A similar activity may be substituted due to safety factors or weather conditions.

Terms and Conditions:

- We expect participants full co-operation with the staff team to ensure the safety of all participants, by following instructions and answering questions honestly about any medical conditions or other information relating to health and safety.
- Participants will take part at his/her own risk and accept that no responsibility for accidents or injuries or loss or damage to personal property rests with Young Bristol supervisory staff, unless proven to be caused by their negligence.
- Participants are competent and medically fit to participate in the activities, medical treatment will be given if necessary and in case of emergency.
- The details provided on this form are complete, accurate and up-to-date and organisers will inform Young Bristol of any changes to any of the information on this form whilst the participants attend the activities.
- Information from this form may be stored digitally.

Photography: Occasionally photographs and video may be taken during the activity for the purpose of marketing & publicity. If you think a parent or carer would not be happy for us to use images of participants for this purpose please write to us via email or post.
